

HOST CHECKLIST

THANK YOU FOR CHOOSING TO HOST A SEACRET WOW PARTY!

Hosting a WOW Party is simple, fun, and benefits you in many ways! This checklist is designed to help make sure you host the best party yet and wow all of your guests.

On the day of the party I'll arrive early to get set up and ready for your guests but in the meantime, here are some of the things you can do to ensure it's a great time.

TODAY

Complete your wishlist

Let me know why you want to host this party!

Create your guest list using F.R.A.N.K.I.E.

Remember, not everyone will be able to make it so invite more people than you're expecting to host. We recommend inviting 30-40 people. Count on 1 in 4 invited guests to be able to attend.

Contact and invite your guests

A personal invite is always best. You can follow up with an email, text, evite or postcard with your party ID and website.

Share your party ID with everyone you invite

Guests may order from your website before the party so be sure to share your ID ahead of time to make sure their orders count towards your party total! This way even people who don't live locally can join in on your party!

Simple Setup

The only thing you need to have is a table or kitchen island for all of us to sit around. If you don't have a table or need some extra chairs, just let me know and I can bring some with me!

THE DAY BEFORE YOUR PARTY

- Please call or text your guests to remind them, and even ask if they'd like to bring a friend! This will help remind people but also give us a more accurate number to prepare for.

THE DAY OF YOUR PARTY

Keep it Simple!

You can prepare a beverage, such as cucumber, water, and an easy snack such as cheese and crackers, and let me take care of the rest!

Most importantly, this will be fun! Thank you for inviting me to share Seacret with you!
